The Lesniak Institute and Save Nosey Now, Inc. hosts Nosey's Law Signing Celebration

Trenton, NJ- Animal welfare advocates are welcome to celebrate Nosey's victory Thursday, Jan. 17 from 6 to 9 p.m. at The Trenton Social 449 S. Broad St.

Join in an exciting celebration at the Trenton Social, an old fashioned pub. There will be door prizes for fellow advocates. We will honor Sen. Raymond J. Lesniak for his advocacy in S1093. We will celebrate Gov. Phil Murphy's decision to sign Nosey's Law into action.

"Advocates of ending the cruelty to elephants and other wild animals in circuses are invited to celebrate our victory and win a door prize that will be cherished," said Sen. Raymond J. Lesniak, founder, and president of The Lesniak Institute for American Leadership

Robin Chandler Vitulle Vice President of Save Nosey Now, Inc. added, "It was only a few months ago that we protested the circus held at the Trenton Arena a few blocks from our celebration at the Trenton Social. How sweet it is!"

The purpose of this event is to celebrate advocacy turning into action after NJ residents came together to rally, educate the public, and contact their legislators to turn their passion into law. This is one of many victories to come supported by The Lesniak Institute for American Leadership.

About The Lesniak Institute for American Leadership

The Lesniak Institute for American Leadership, based at Kean University, is a nonprofit think tank and training institute to develop the next generation of American leaders, and to partner with grassroots leaders from across the country, to advocate for social justice. The Institute is named for Senator Raymond J. Lesniak, who, over a 40-year career in the New Jersey Legislature, authored and sponsored hundreds of laws that have advanced civil rights and the quality of life for millions.
